

Spend four hours with The Dalai Lama

COMPASSION MEDITATION:

Mapping Current Research and Charting Future Directions

This one-day conference at Emory University will bring leading scientists and educators into dialogue with His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama to discuss the state of current research on empathy and compassion, the scientific study of meditation practices for cultivating compassion, and the implementation of meditation programs in various clinical and educational settings.

Appearing with His Holiness the XIV Dalai Lama

*Frans B.M. de Waal, PhD - Geshe Lobsang Tenzin Negi, PhD - Richard Davidson, PhD
The Venerable Matthieu Ricard, PhD - Daniel Goleman, PhD - Barbara L. Fredrickson, PhD
Philippe Goldin, PhD - Charles Raison, MD - John Dunne, PhD - Brendan Ozawa-de Silva, PhD*

Monday, October 18, 2010

Morning session: 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Afternoon session: 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.
His Holiness will participate fully in both sessions, and both are included in your ticket purchase.

Order your tickets today!

visit dalailama.emory.edu or call 1-877-725-8849

Events take place at Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia. See website for security

SPECIAL: $25 discount for students

Any school. All remaining seats.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDITS AVAILABLE!

Medicine, Psychology, Theology, Social Work, Licensed Professional Counselors and General.

See dalailama.emory.edu for details. Additional CEU/CME registration fees may apply.